Graduate Reading Program Handbook

Reading Certificate (Added Authorization)
MS in Education, Option in Reading Instruction

2016-2017
Welcome to the California State University, East Bay Graduate Reading Program! We are pleased to offer the Reading Certificate Added Authorization and the Masters in Education, Option in Reading Instruction.

Graduate Reading Coordinator - Dr. Diane Mukerjee

The Graduate Reading Program is offered through University Extension.

The following is a description of our programs:

Reading Certificate (Added Authorization)

Students will complete a series of five four-unit graduate Reading courses (20 units) beginning in the summer. Upon successful completion of their coursework and three or more years of classroom teaching, candidates will be recommended for the state-issued Reading Certificate Added Authorization. Candidates with less than three years of teaching experience are welcome to complete the program and apply for the Reading Certificate Added Authorization once they have the required classroom teaching experience. (The application for recommendation for the Reading Certificate Added Authorization is included in the appendix of this handbook.)

MS in Education, Option in Reading Instruction

With the addition of three more graduate courses (12 units) candidates will also receive a Masters of Science degree in Education with an Option in Reading Instruction. The 45-unit MS in Education, Option in Reading Instruction includes 13 post-baccalaureate units. Candidates may enroll in CSUEB electives (not 7000 level courses) or bring in 13 units of coursework from an accredited credential program completed within five years of the projected MS completion date. The entire program including the Reading Certificate Added Authorization and the MS degree can be completed in one calendar year (with the inclusion 13 approved credential program units.)

Applications

Applications open in early February and continue until late May. Candidates submit the University Graduate Application on-line. All of the other documents listed below are to be submitted to the Credential Student Service Center (CSSC) by the application deadline.

Summer Reading Clinic

TED 6253 Reading/Language Arts: Literacy Research and Methods II (Comprehension) and TED 6220 Reading/Language Arts: Focus on Diversity will be taught back-to-back this summer. The summer field experiences are combined into a single experience. Clinic instruction is conducted with struggling students including English learners who come to campus for 90 minutes of tutoring in comprehension, once per week. Reading candidates complete their field experience with these students.

Program Completion: Reading Certificate Added Authorization

Candidates may apply for the state-issued Reading Certificate Added Authorization upon completion of the first five Reading Certificate Added Authorization courses and verification of three years of teaching experience. The following is a list of the required courses:

TED 6230 Reading and Language Arts: Literacy Research and Methods 1 (4 units)
TED 6253 Reading and Language Arts: Literacy Research & Methods 2 (4 units)
TED 6220 Reading and Language Arts: Culture of Literacy: Focus on Diversity (4 units)
TED 6231 Reading and Language Arts: Literacy Assessment & Intervention 1 (4 units)
TED 6232 Reading and Language Arts: Literacy Assessment & Intervention 2 (4 units)

After completing the coursework, candidates submit a Verification of Experience Form, signed by their employer (last page of this handbook) to the Credential Student Service Center (CSSC). The CSSC recommends qualified candidates for the Reading Certificate Added Authorization.

Candidates with less than three years of teaching experience are welcome to enter the Reading Certificate
Added Authorization Program and complete the coursework. They may apply for the Reading Certificate Added Authorization once they have the required three years of classroom teaching experience.

Program Completion: MS in Education, Option in Reading Instruction

The following are CSU East Bay requirements for graduation with a MS degree:

1. Fulfill the University Writing Skills Requirement
2. Be Advanced to Candidacy
3. Complete at least 45 quarter units applicable to your degree
   - All units must be earned within the five calendar years immediately preceding the receipt of your degree. (Outdated units may be accepted for one additional year with the approval of your department and the Associate Vice President, Academic Programs and Graduate Studies. If not completed in the sixth year, currency in the subject matter of the outdated courses must be demonstrated. Courses older than seven years are only applied to the degree in exceptional circumstances.)
   - No more than 13 units can be completed when not in residence in your program (e.g., while at other schools, while an undergraduate with permission to take graduate courses, while pursuing an additional baccalaureate degree in "Unclassified Post-Baccalaureate" status, while enrolled in another graduate degree program, or while enrolled in Continuing Education courses-including Open University courses)
   - At least 1/2 of the units in your program must be 6000-level
   - No lower division units can be counted
   - No more than 9 units of university thesis or 5 units of departmental thesis or project work can be counted
   - No more than 15 units may be in CR/NC courses (16 in Public Administration, 24 in Counseling)

To File for Graduation, follow these steps:

1. Log in to MyCSUEB with your NetID and password. Under “Student Center,” select the “Apply for Graduation” link and follow the prompts to select the degree and term for your graduation. Please refer to Important Dates to view the deadlines to file for graduation.
2. Contact your major and minor departments to initiate a graduation check form, which will be completed by the department and sent to the graduation evaluations office for further review.

NOTE: After you file for graduation, a $50 graduation filing fee will be applied to your student account.

Writing Skills Tests (WST)

The Writing Skills Test consists of an analytic essay that requires you to demonstrate that you can think and write critically.

- WST Exemptions:
  - Students who have completed a CSU degree or have taken one of the following exams and received the appropriate score are exempt from having to satisfy the University Writing Skills Requirement. Please note, however, that California State University, East Bay's Admissions Office or Testing Office must receive an official score report and enter it into your academic record before you are fully exempt from the UWSR requirement based on one of these tests. It is your responsibility to have your scores sent.
  - 53 or higher on the writing portion of the CBEST by graduate students accepted into their program Winter Quarter 1999 or later.
  - 4.5 or higher on the analytic writing portion of the GRE General Test taken by graduate students in Fall Quarter 2002 or later.
• Please see the following website for more information about the WST:
